C. Tax Information

Please review your CUA Missing Information Letter (MIL). If the letter requests either a student tax return or a parent tax return, or both, then check the response that applies below and attach all required documentation as indicated. (If you are using different documentation methods to verify tax information for the student and parent please check each box that applies.)

The best way to verify income is by using the IRS Data Retrieval Tool that is part of FAFSA on the Web. If the student/parent has not already used the tool, the parent should go to FAFSA.gov, log in to the student's FAFSA record, select "Make FAFSA Corrections", and navigate to the Financial Information section of the form. From there, follow the instructions to determine if the student/parent is eligible to use the IRS Data Retrieval Tool to transfer 2019 IRS income tax information.

- The MIL letter does not request a tax return for either the student or parent(s).
 I have attached the requested tax return for both the student and parent(s).
 I have attached the requested student tax return.
 I have attached the requested parent tax return.
 I have filed a FAFSA correction to use the IRS Data Retrieval Process to update tax information for:
      Student     Parent     Both
 I cannot obtain a tax return; I have reviewed the section "Income Information for Tax Filers with Special Circumstances" at <https://financial-aid.catholic.edu/policies/verification.html> and have provided all the necessary alternate documentation.
